

Glenwood Combination Coal And Gas Range.

The Cabinet Glenwood "Makes Cooking Easy."

Reynolds & Son, Barre, Vt.

The Gas Range Attachment has three burners in top, a large oven and a handy compartment for broiling, fitted with dripping-pan and rack. The heat in both Coal and Gas ovens is registered by the wonderful Glenwood Patent Oven Heat Indicator which shows at a glance when to put food in oven. Being very compact it saves room in the kitchen.

If a large amount of baking is required, both the coal and gas ovens can be operated at the same time, using one for meats and the other for pastry.

DOCTORS TAKE OUT MAN'S HEART.

Stitch Wound in It Between Boats and Patient Still Lives.

New York, April 7.—Robert Inglis, a young athlete of Yonkers, underwent a remarkable operation in St. Joseph's hospital. He had been stabbed in the heart. The surgeons were able to do the work on him within a few minutes after he received his wound. His breast was opened, the heart lifted out and three stitches taken in it. The doctors then sewed up the pericardium, or sack that covers the heart.

Sunday night he was so well that he talked with other patients and insisted upon having a drink of water. His extraordinary vitality and strong constitution are accountable for his quick rally from the operation.

The stitches in his heart were made with catgut thread and had to be taken when the heart was distended, or between beats.

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN

LYDIA E. PINKHAM

No other medicine has been so successful in relieving the suffering of women or received so many genuine testimonials as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

In every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Almost every one you meet has either been benefited by it, or has friends who have. In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., any woman may see the files containing over one million one hundred thousand letters from women seeking health, and here are the letters in which they openly state over their own signatures that they were cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved many women from surgical operations. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is made from roots and herbs, without drugs, and is wholesome and harmless.

The reason why Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful is because it contains ingredients which act directly upon the feminine organism, restoring it to a healthy normal condition.

Women who are suffering from those distressing peculiarities to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

LODGE FOR HARMONY

Does Not Want Rupture in Massachusetts

STATE CONVENTION FRIDAY

Those Who Oppose Instructions Much Pleased With the Statement of the Massachusetts Senator to That Effect.

Washington, April 7.—Both the Massachusetts senators expected to be in Boston before the week is over, and both of them, according to present plans, will attend Friday's state convention.

"I cannot say just when I shall reach Boston," Senator Lodge stated yesterday afternoon. "I am going up to look the field over, but I am not to take charge of any campaign. I have had no campaign in charge. I want harmony in the Republican party."

Senator Crane is uncertain when he will reach Boston. He had nothing to say about the political situation in Boston, but appeared to be in excellent humor over the developments.

The Massachusetts members of the House who oppose instructions, are well satisfied over Senator Lodge's statement that it is for party harmony. Neither of the senators, however, will discuss the matter of resolutions today, preferring to leave that alone for the present.

BRYAN MEN WORRIED BY ACTIVITY OF OPPONENTS.

Boomers of Johnson, Gray, Douglas, and Harmon Busy.

Washington, April 7.—For the first time in the campaign the Democratic leaders who are close to Bryan and who are working for his nomination admit being worried.

They are alarmed over the sudden evidence of activity on the part of their opponents. The Johnson boomers, the Gray supporters, and the friends of Douglas and of Harmon are all making a great effort to get delegates.

The fact that literature is being sent out from the Johnson headquarters at Chicago by F. B. Lynch, treasurer of the Minnesota state committee and a prominent Democrat of his state, with plenty of money back of him and able lieutenants, about him is alone calculated to give the Bryan men worry.

BRYAN'S MODESTY.

Says in Denver He Won't Attend Convention.

Denver, Col., April 7.—W. J. Bryan will not attend the Democratic national convention, according to a statement he gave out yesterday. Mr. Bryan lectured last night in Colorado Springs, but except to prophesy a Democratic victory he declined to talk politics.

SAVED 29 OF CREW OF THE CHAMPAGNE

Steamer Volturo Brings News of Brave Rescue off St. Malo, France.

Halifax, N. S., April 7.—News of the loss of the French fishing schooner Champagne off St. Malo, France, was received here yesterday when the 28 fishermen forming her crew arrived at this port on board the steamer Volturo, bound from Rotterdam for New York. All the members of the crew of the Champagne were saved by boats from the Volturo.

A boat in charge of Chief Officer McIntosh and manned by a crew of the Champagne, the weather became heavy again and not until the next day there another opportunity to send off a boat. Then the chief officer and his volunteers made a second trip and rescued the remainder of the crew. Before abandoning the fisherman, which was leaving badly, the men set her adrift. The French fishermen probably will be sent to St. Pierre.

Hot Stove—Cool Kitchen

How do you expect to endure the broiling days of summer if you prepare all the food over a glowing coal fire?

You need a "New Perfection" Oil Stove that will do the cooking without cooking the cook. It concentrates plenty of heat under the pot and diffuses little or none through the room. Therefore, when working with the the kitchen actually seems as comfortable as you could wish it to be.

This, in itself, is wonderful, but more than that, the "New Perfection" Oil Stove does perfectly everything that any stove can do. It is an ideal all-around cook-stove. Made in three sizes, and fully warranted. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

The Rayo Lamp

A substantial, strongly made and handsome lamp. Burns for hours with a strong, mellow light. Just what you need for evening reading or to light the dining-room. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency. Standard Oil Company of New York (Incorporated)

HALIFAX OFFICIAL IS SUSPENDED

Interpreter Charged With Conspiring to Defraud Immigrants.

Halifax, N. S., April 7.—Another suspension at the immigration station here has been ordered by the officials in Ottawa, as a result of charges of conspiracy to defraud emigrants from Great Britain to Canada.

Joseph Bernstein, a government interpreter at the immigration station, is the latest person to be affected by the investigation, which originated in Liverpool, Eng., where three men were found to have exerted money from emigrants to insure their admission to Canada.

Dr. Hugh L. Dickey, who up to a short time ago was in charge of the trachoma hospital connected with the immigration station, was forced to resign as a result of the discovery of a system in which he was concerned, whereby certain immigrants were refused admission to the Dominion on pretense that they were diseased, until they had paid sums of money.

MINERS MAY BE AT WORK IN A WEEK.

Efforts in Southwest to Agree on New Wage Scale—Gov. Folk Will Take Part.

Kansas City, Mo., April 7.—Southwestern coal operators and miners' representatives met here yesterday to discuss a new wage scale affecting the 35,000 men now out. Leaders of both sides expressed confidence that an amicable settlement would be reached, and the men would soon be at work again, probably within another week. The action of the joint committee must be finally referred to the miners and operators for ratification.

Gov. Joseph W. Folk is expected here to take part in the conference, while T. L. Lewis, national president of the United Mine Workers of America, will arrive probably Wednesday.

CASE FOR THE DIPLOMATS

Japanese Attack Chinese in U. S. Consulate

QUARREL LEADS TO ATTACK

Native Staff at Mukden Is Assaulted by a Party of Four in Revenge for an Alleged Private Spite.

Mukden, April 7.—Four Japanese entered the American consulate yesterday and brutally attacked the native staff in revenge for a private spite. Consul-General Straight made a requisition on the Chinese police and the Japanese were arrested and taken to the Japanese consulate.

No apology has yet been offered, and it is probable that the matter will be a subject of diplomatic action. There has been friction for some time between the Russian and Japanese authorities and the American consulate in Manchuria, particularly at Mukden and Harbin, at which latter place Frederick D. Fisher is consul. Acting under instructions from the state department at Washington, the American consulate has declined to acknowledge Russian authority in the cities within the Russian railroad zone, and have acknowledged Chinese authority only. In this respect the Japanese occupy a precisely similar position in their zone, where they have been as aggressive as the Russian, if not more aggressive than they, and as much disposed to ignore China's sovereign rights. The matter has aroused great feeling in Manchuria, and has probably opened an important international question.

Mukden, formerly the royal capital of Manchuria, had, when the Russo-Japanese war began, a population of more than 250,000. It is the metropolis of the country and one of the leading centers of trade. It is about 330 miles north of Port Arthur, and about 160 miles north of Newchwang, which is its seaport.

In many respects Mukden is an exceptionally fine Oriental city. The town is enclosed by splendid walls. Suburbs extend outside of these walls for nearly a mile in every direction, and these also are inclosed by mud walls.

The whole of Manchuria, at the outbreak of the war, was subject to Russian influence. Military officers, posing as consular agents, were posted in every town, mounted Cossacks guarded every route, and in every trade center the most prosperous merchants were Russians. All these things applied particularly to Mukden.

About Mukden were fought in 1904-05 the greatest battles of modern times, which placed Japan in the front rank of military powers. The city was occupied by the Japanese in March, 1905.

LISBON MOB FIGHT TROOPS; MANY KILLED.

Rioters Tear Up Pavements For Miles in Fierce Election Disorders.

Lisbon, April 7.—Fierce election riots are raging here. The mob is tearing up the pavements for miles with which to light the troops. There has already been considerable shooting and many casualties, though the number of dead and wounded is at yet uncertain. More than 100 arrests have been made.

Madrid, April 7.—Portuguese troops and rioters fought desperately in Lisbon, yesterday afternoon, according to brief dispatches from the capital of the sister kingdom.

The battle was the climax of a series of small riots which have continued intermittently all day over the result of yesterday's elections. The troops had tried repeatedly to clear the squares and finally charged with fixed bayonets. The mob answered with a shower of stones, upon which the soldiers fired a volley.

Until an official statement is issued the number of dead and wounded will remain uncertain, but it is known there were many casualties. The newspapers representing the Portuguese, republican and national parties, have been mobbed. Cavalry finally scattered the crowds in front of the offices.

Rioting is due to the Republicans' charge that the monarchists carried yesterday's elections by wholesale frauds. By the votes which have been counted in 10 districts not a Republican can have been declared elected. The censorship is so strict that few details of the situation are known.

STREET CAR AFIRE.

Runs Full Speed While Engines Put out.

Chicago, April 7.—Flames that raced through a West Madison street car running at full speed caused a panic among passengers yesterday. The motorman, James Witt, remained at his post, although flames were leaping all around him. He finally succeeded in bringing the car to a stop after a run of two blocks in which two fire engine companies engaged in a futile pursuit. Several of the passengers leaped to the street and were slightly injured.

LIFE-SAPPING PARASITES THAT WRECK HUMAN SYSTEM

The following remarkable statement was recently made by L. T. Cooper. It concerns the preparation which has been so widely discussed throughout the country during the past year, and has sold in such enormous quantities in leading cities:

"It is now a well-known fact that wherever I have introduced my New Discovery medicine, hundreds of people have brought internal parasites, or tapeworms, to me. In many cases these people did not know the nature of the parasite, and were consequently extremely nervous until I explained the matter to them. In some cities so many have had this experience that the public generally became alarmed. I take this opportunity of explaining what these creatures are, and what I have learned about them in the past. Tapeworms are much more common than would be supposed. I venture to say that ten per cent. of all chronic stomach trouble, or what is known as a 'rundown' condition, is caused by them. An individual may suffer for years with one of these great parasites and not be aware of it.

"Contrary to general belief, the appetite is not greatly increased—it only becomes irregular. There is a general feeling of faintness, however, and a gnawing sensation in the pit of the stomach.

"People afflicted with one of these parasites are nervous and depressed. Their chief sensation is one of languor, and they tire very easily. Lack of energy and ambition affect the body, and the mind becomes dull and sluggish. The memory becomes not so good, and the eyesight is generally poorer.

"The New Discovery, in freeing stomach and bowels of all impurities, seems to be fatal to these great worms, and almost immediately expels them from the system. I wish to assure anyone who has the experience just related with my preparation, that there is no cause for alarm in the matter, and that it will as a rule mean a speedy restoration to good health."

The Cooper medicines are a boon to stomach sufferers. We sell them. —C. H. Kendrick & Co.

A Leap Year Round Robin.

(Original.)

In large cities marriages among the so called higher classes are decreasing. A young man even of means has many things to deter him from matrimony and many things to induce him to remain single. Housekeeping in style is expensive, while there are magnificent clubhouses in which a bachelor may spend his leisure.

At a social gathering of young ladies the indisposition of eligible men to marry was under discussion. Miss Markham declared that it was the fault of the girls that they did not use the sex's privilege to snare the bachelors. "Now, there's Guy Harrison," she said. "He's entirely eligible in every respect. He's president, vice president and director of no end of companies, and everything he touches turns to money. He's thirty-five, well educated, refined and intellectual. Why haven't some girl appropriated him? Men don't think of marrying, or if they do they consider it in the remote future till they are snared."

"Very well," said Miss Boyd, a spinster of thirty, "consider yourself appointed to snare Mr. Harrison."

"Thank you for the honor conferred upon me, but I am not inclined to do all the work myself. I will, however, join in a round robin with the others present with a view to accomplishing the purpose. Let us each write a leap year letter to Mr. Harrison proposing marriage. This will arrest his attention and force him either to choose one of us or to appear ungallant."

"Bravo!" shouted every girl present. "How delightful! Come, let us begin."

Letters were written by five young ladies, each one of whom signed an assumed name to her epistle. Miss Boyd refrained on the ground that at her age it would be highly improper to offer herself. To this the others assented. She was surely passé, though a very attractive woman. She wrote Mr. Harrison that she would be pleased to have him send his reply to her and call upon her for information concerning the writers. Then all the letters were put into the postoffice at one time, that they might be received together. Miss Boyd promised as soon as a reply was received to call the candidates to her house to hear it read.

A week passed, and not hearing from their medium, the young ladies became impatient. Then after consultation they resolved to go to her house and ask if a reply had not been received. Miss Boyd received them, somewhat embarrassed and with a faint color in her cheeks. She admitted that she had received a reply and handed it to Miss Markham to read:

Dear Miss Boyd—I heartily approve of the leap year plan adopted by certain young ladies, but disapprove of any lady who was present shirking her part in it. I shall withhold my selection until satisfied that every woman present at the time the round robin was decided on has sent in her proposal.

The girls all looked at each other. Miss Boyd proved equal to the occasion. "It is evidently a ruse," she said, "to gain time. To accommodate you I will take measures to bring him to a decision by writing a proposal. It will be a mere form. My identity will be the only one he will know. He will then plan for further delay by asking for the names of the others. But do not despair; some of you will bring him down yet." This view of the case satisfied the candidates, and the young ladies went away. All admitted that a middle aged man would be sure to choose, if at all, from among the youngest candidates.

Another week passed without word from Miss Boyd. The young ladies, growing impatient, went again in a body to her house. Again she received them with embarrassment and this time refused to show a reply she had received. Attacked front, flanks and rear, she at last yielded. The reply was this:

Dear Miss Boyd—I return certain anonymous letters received by me recently, none of which interests me. Your proposition will be considered and a reply sent you later.

There was a blank state on the faces of the candidates. Then Miss Boyd, recovering her equilibrium, said: "Our plan has failed. It has been evident from the first that Mr. Harrison is sufficiently adroit to get out of the trap without appearing ungallant."

"Unpleasant!" cried one of the girls. "Is it gallant to say to a woman who proposes that her reply will be sent later, with a view not to sending it at all?"

This remark gave the impression held by the girls, and all took their departure feeling that the plan had miscarried. Indeed, each girl, though her identity was unknown to the snarer, felt that she had been snubbed.

A month passed, and the episode was nearly forgotten. Occasionally Miss Boyd would be asked if anything more had come of the matter, to which she invariably replied:

"You silly girl! Wasn't it plain to you that Mr. Harrison was too smart for you all?"

But one morning each of the five rejected candidates rushed to the other four, exclaiming, "Have you seen it?"

"Yes. Isn't it shameful?"

"Catch me again employing a woman as a go-between in such an affair!"

The occasion of this comment was an item in the society columns of a newspaper:

The engagement is announced of Mr. Guy D. Harrison to Miss Margaret Boyd. "You are all wrong!" said a married woman to one of the ex-candidates on seeing the invidious remarks. "Margaret Boyd is only twenty-nine, and there has never been a time that she couldn't get almost any bachelor in the city she wanted."

CONSTANCE WILD.

NATIONAL LIFE WINS.

Vermont Insurance Company Has Exclusive Right to Name.

Washington, April 7.—The supreme court has decided the controversy between the National Life Insurance Company of the United States of America of Chicago vs. the National Life Insurance Company of Vermont over the right to the use of the name "National Life Insurance Company" in favor of the Vermont concern. Yesterday decision affirms the finding of the circuit court of appeals for the seventh circuit.

That securities held by a broker who is about to become bankrupt may be returned to their original owner without constituting a preference under the law, was held yesterday by the supreme court of the United States in deciding for Davidson and Shaw the case of Henry Arnold Richardson, trustee in bankruptcy for the estate of J. Francis Brown, bankrupt stock broker of Boston, vs. John M. Shaw and Alexander Davidson, on the ground that they were not creditors. Brown was declared a bankrupt June 28, 1903, and on the day previous turned over to Shaw and Davidson, both of New York, $45,683 in securities, which they had deposited with him as clients, they paying at the same time an indebtedness of $34,919 to Brown. When Richardson was appointed receiver for Brown, he began suit to secure the restoration of the securities on the ground that to turn them back to the original owners was an act of undue preference as among creditors. The decisions of the United States circuit court for the Eastern District of New York and the United States circuit court of appeals were sustained by yesterday's opinion, which was by Justice Day.

Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life often make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliant radiance like the bloom from a peach which is the mark of youth, the matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant pelvic drains and weaknesses which too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the check of its freshness and the form of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate woman's organs, so surely when these organs are established in health the face and form at once witness to the fact in renewed complexion. Nearly a million women have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label—contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs. Made wholly of those native American medicinal roots most highly recommended by leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice for the cure of women's peculiar ailments.

For nursing mothers or for those broken down in health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mothers, to prepare the system for the coming of baby and making its advent easy and almost painless, there is no medicine quite so good as "Favorite Prescription." It can do no harm in any condition of the system. It is a most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve tonic adapted to woman's delicate system by a physician of large experience in the treatment of woman's peculiar ailments.
